MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

While stormy—Fair.
Blue—Rain or snow.
With black above—(will) warmer.
If black beneath—(will) colder.
If black shows—no change.
If black shows—no change.

A FETTER.
At the bar he swallowed a "bracer."
With relish, as one could see.
Then he followed it down with a "chaser."
"That settled the thing," said he.

Notice to Republicans.

The Republicans of the various Precincts of Mason county are requested to meet at the Council Chamber in Maysville on Saturday, May 26th, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of consultation in relation to the coming Congressional Convention at Augusta, and such other matters as may be presented. D. P. Oxt, Chairman.

There is no city in the United States exempt from the dangers of malaria. Ayer's Ague Cure neutralizes all miasmatic poisons.

W. H. Current of Paris assigned to John H. Northcott. He had been a liquor dealer and merchant there until recently, but is now conducting a Paris cancer cure in Cincinnati.

THOMAS H. RUGGLES.

Unexpected Death at Tolleboro Early Yesterday Morning

For many years Thomas H. Ruggles was proprietor of the bus line between this city and Tolleboro.

In this way he became known to many of our people.

Of late years he had conducted an immense store at Tolleboro, and by his kindness of heart had extended credit to so many who could not pay that when his own obligations were due he could not meet them.

A few months since he was forced into an assignment, and there can be no doubt but what his troubles bore heavily on his mind.

Two weeks ago he was taken ill with something like flu, but nothing serious was apprehended until a couple of days since.

Worried in mind and weakened in body, his endurance gave way and at 8 o'clock yesterday morning he died.

He leaves a wife, two children and many friends to mourn.

The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon, interment at Tabor.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Program for its observance at the First Baptist Church Sunday.

The following is the program for the observance of Children's Day at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning, beginning at 10:30 o'clock:

Song by the school, "Day of Flowers." Recitation—"Greeting." Miss Mary Egan.

Recitation—"Children's Day." Miss Anna Payne.

Song by the school, "Sweetest." Recitation—"In Eastern Land." Miss Elsie Shackelford.

Recitation—"New and Sweet." Miss Tillie Parker.

Song by the school, "Jesus, King Most Wonderful." Address, Rev. R. G. Patrick.

Recitation—"The Sweetest Story." Perry Tolle.

Recitation—"Children's Prayers." Berne Warder.

Song by the congregation.

All the pupils of the Sunday-school are requested to meet at the Baptist Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock to practice.

Those of the church having flowers suitable for decoration will please send them to the church tomorrow morning or send word to the Committee on Decoration.

Mrs. R. G. PATRICK, Chairman.

Ten Nights in a Barroom.

Chronic constipation is a troublesome and dangerous disorder. The surest and safest remedy is Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

Take your work to the Globe Laundry. They are turning out first class work. Their bathrooms are also in good condition.

Mrs. L. V. Davis has a large line of fine millinery—the best goods that money could buy—which must be sold at the price of ordinary goods.

Now and hereafter THE Cincinnati Commercial Gazette will be found for sale at Smith & Co.'s cigar store on Second street and at W. W. Lynch's on Market street.

As I have been unable to secure the list from former Agent, subscribers who fail to get their paper will please report their names, and they will be served promptly.

W. H. LYNCH, Agent.

Howell F. Berkley's Funeral.

The remains of the late Howell F. Berkley will arrive from New York at 4:08 this afternoon, and the funeral will take place from the family residence on West Third street tomorrow afternoon.

Religious services will be conducted by the Rev. D. D. Chapin, assisted by the Rev. E. B. Calk. In accordance with the request of deceased the funeral will be simple and devoid of display.

SNIVEL SERVICE.

A New Deal in the Local Board of Examiners.

Charles R. Thompson and Early Worick having left the postal service, their official life as members of the Board of Civil Service Examiners has ceased.

E. L. Pearce, T. M. Luman and B. W. Goodman have been named as their successors,—two be chosen,—but the recommendations have to be passed upon by the Commission at Washington.

It is not done between now and tomorrow morning there can be no examination of applicants tomorrow, which has been designated as the time for holding an examination.

The present Postmaster General treats the Civil Service law as very elastic, and has "ruled" that about all the employees in a Postoffice—excepting the office call—come under the "excepted" list.

Under the law, there is but one position in the Mayville office which properly comes under the head of "excepted places," and that is the Assistant Postmaster who is also Chief Clerk; but Mr. Bissell and his civil service have "excepted" the Assistant Postmaster, the Chief Clerk and the General Clerk, who does a little bit of everything about the office.

Thus is shown the insincerity and the sham of the Civil Service law as administered by the party in power. But we glory in their spunk. They have set the pace for a clean sweep when the next change comes. And it's coming, father Abraham, ten hundred thousand strong!

HOME MISSION WORK.

"The Ledger" Makes an Appeal For the Christian Ladies.

Home Missions! "There's no place like home!"

And right here at our own doors is a field ready for the Godly glancers.

At the Young Ladies' Prayer meeting the other afternoon a committee was appointed—one from each of the churches represented—and this committee was directed to solicit subscriptions to provide a suitable place for future meetings and to procure hymn-books for the use of those who attend.

Already a room has been secured for a term of months; but a commodious, permanent place is desired, and to save the good ladies the trouble of making a house-to-house canvass for donations, THE LEDGER volunteers to receive subscriptions for the cause.

Prompt acknowledgment will be made of all sums received, and contributors may rest assured that the funds will be properly used.

The following subscriptions have been made to date:

THE OTHER SIDE.

Sensational Statements in the Simonson Divorce Proceedings.

Louisville Times, Wednesday.

The filing of a divorce suit this morning made public a domestic scandal which has caused a good deal of quiet talk among the friends of the parties involved.

The plaintiff in the case is D. G. Simonson, of the firm of Kleinhaus & Simonson, proprietors of the Mammoth Clothing House. Adultery is the ground upon which the action is based.

Mr. Simonson declines to discuss the deplorable affair, a Times reporter learned from an inside source some facts of the denouement in the case, which took place on May 10th. They are represented to be as follows:

Mr. Simonson has suspected for some time that his wife was not true to him and was on the alert.

He was to go to Cincinnati, and learned that his wife had made an engagement with her lover conditioned on his going.

She, too, had become suspicious that her husband was not altogether in the dark about her amours, and accompanied him to the train to make sure of his leaving.

This was something she had not done for two years, and Mr. Simonson made mental note of this suspicious wife's act.

He left the train at the first opportunity and hurried to his home, 115 West Ormsby. Gaining entrance to the house unobserved he secreted himself where he could watch developments. They came without delay.

The lower appeared upon the scene before Mr. Simonson had got well settled in his position. What the husband saw satisfied him fully of his wife's unfaithfulness, and as she proceeded up stairs he confronted her and informed her of that fact. She begged for the life of herself and lover. Mr. Simonson said he would not kill either, but the man must get out of the house instantly. He did not wait on a dismissal, but ran panic-stricken through the kitchen and jumped through a window guarded by a wire screen.

Mr. Simonson, for the sake of his children and to avoid public scandal, would have agreed upon a quiet separation if it could have been arranged, but his wife refused to give up their offspring.

Her brother, John Fitch, and her parents came here after the trouble. On Sunday morning Mrs. Simonson left with the children for her old home at Flemingsburg, Ky. where, according to a telegram, she has already brought suit for divorce on the ground of cruelty and for alimony in the sum of $50,000. Mr. Simonson's main interest now is to get custody of his two children.

The man in the case is said to be Richard Middleton. He comes from Shelbyville and is employed in a Fourth street store. The petition filed today does not give name, but when the case comes to trial he will be called on to state a witness. It is also supposed, as the petition suggests, that others will be implicated.

The petition for divorce filed this morning by Mr. Simonson recites the fact that he and the defendant were married in Flemingsburg, Ky., November 3d, 1888. The fruit of the union is two children, Walker Evans Simonson, aged 6 years, and Clara Lee Simonson, aged 4.

No correspondent is named, but the general charge that Mrs. Simonson has been guilty of adultery at diverse and sundry times and with diverse and sundry persons is made.

The petition also contains the allegation that the defendant, assisted by her kinspeople, stole the children and left them Sunday going to Flemingsburg.

Mr. Simonson asks to be granted a divorce and the care and custody of his two children, and wants the court to cancel a deed to the property at Third and Ormsby, which is in his wife's name and that she be declared to have no interest in his estate.

Our Opportunity to Benefit Our Patrons

SO EARLY IN THE SEASON COMES IN SPLENDID PLAY AT THIS TIME.

Usually cut sales are made when most every one is already supplied with a seasonable outfit. This slaughter comes just in time, when you want a Spring Suit, and you buy it at a saving of 40 to 60 per cent. Moreover, you secure bright, fresh and elegantly made goods, made by the very best manufacturers in the country. Now read the following carefully: Whilst we bought at the recent Closing-out Sale of Spring Clothing of M. and L. S. Fecheimer & Co. quite heavily, we find that many of our patrons who have visited our store in the past two days desire to select goods out of our regular stock. To disappoint no one and to treat all fair, and taking into consideration the general and universal closeness of financial matters, (and we assure you we are no exception to the rule,) we conclude to

SELL OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF CLOTHING!

BOTH SPRING AND SUMMER,

at precisely the same pro rata that you have in the past two days bought the goods at which we secured at the Fecheimer sale. Please bear this in mind, however, that nothing sold at these prices will be charged to anybody. When the goods go out the money must come in. During this sale not a garment in our stock is exempt or held back. You know that we always do what we advertise. We are going to make this sale the most popular that we ever organized, and you will do yourself, as well as us, injustice if you do not come and see the goods and prices on them.
